TILMAN FERTITTA OPENS WORLD RENOWNED MASTRO'S STEAKHOUSE IN HOUSTON

HOUSTON – Chairman and CEO Tilman Fertitta owner of the restaurant giant Landry's, Inc., the Golden Nugget Casinos and Hotels and the NBA Houston Rockets, opens Texas' first Mastro's Steakhouse at his 10-acre mixed-use development, The Post Oak Hotel at Uptown Houston, on Friday, December 8.

"I have always wanted to open Mastro's one-of-a-kind, masterful, high-end dining experience in my hometown," said Tilman Fertitta. "Mastro's will be the first restaurant to open at The Post Oak, with the remainder of the luxury destination development slated to open in early 2018."

Highly acclaimed by celebrities, critics, and savvy diners, Mastro's Steakhouse is recognized for its unsurpassed service and paramount dining experience. The steakhouse offers only the highest quality USDA Prime steaks with 16 different cuts of meat; a selection of fresh seafood and raw bar offerings; superb appetizers and sides such as lobster mashed potatoes and a two-foot-tall seafood tower; creative sushi selections developed by international famed sushi chef Angel Carbajal of Cabo San Lucas's Niksan; chef-crafted desserts including the award-winning, melt-in-your-mouth warm butter cake. Mastro's also introduces new dishes that are exclusively featured on the Houston menu, including Garlic Roasted Bone Marrow, Crispy Shrimp and Scallop Bird Nest Dumplings; Shiso Jica-machi Sashimi; Japanese A5 Wagyu on a hot stone; Aspen Ridge All Natural, No Antibiotics Boneless Ribeye and Mastro's world famous Lobster Mashed Potatoes and Signature Warm Butter Cake. "Guests will have the opportunity to experience these distinctive menu offerings exclusive to Mastro's Houston" said Executive Chef Michael Colbert, "We're excited to unveil an elevated dining experience to Houston Foodies and steak lovers alike."

In addition to the sophisticated menu, Mastro's hosts live Top 40 entertainment daily in its Piano Lounge, the see-and-be-seen bar area. Guests can enjoy spirits and handcrafted cocktails, including Mastro's signature smoking Lemon Drop and Cosmo martinis, served up by skilled mixologists; or sip on the finest wines from the extensive collection at The Cellar at The Post Oak – the hotel's expansive wine cellar housing over 20,000 bottles from more than 25 countries, including vintages dating back to the 1800's. Mastro's Master Sommelier Keith Goldston is committed to advising connoisseurs on the very best wine to serve each individual's palate.

Guests can dine al fresco on Mastro's garden terrace surrounded by The Post Oak's lush greenery, oak trees and tranquil water fountains. Four private dining rooms are available for intimate celebrations and social gatherings of all kinds.

Fertitta owns and operates all Mastro's Steakhouse's including Beverly Hills, Thousand Oaks, Costa Mesa, Palm Desert, Chicago, Scottsdale, New York City and Washington D.C. Mastro's Ocean Club has locations in Las Vegas, Scottsdale, Malibu, Boston and Newport Beach.
