HOUSTON – January 11, 2018 – Tilman Fertitta unveils the new look & location of his signature Willie G's Seafood on Thursday, January 11, at his 10-acre mixed-use development, The Post Oak Hotel at Uptown Houston.

Willie G's offers hand-crafted specialty drinks, including barrel-aged cocktails, and the finest wines from an extensive collection with wines from The Cellar at The Post Oak – the hotel's expansive wine cellar housing over 20,000 bottles from more than 25 countries, including vintages dating back to the 1800's.

The new Willie G's takes on a modern-industrial style look with rich dark wood panels, exposed lighting and sleek black granite countertops. The main dining rooms seat around 300 guests with additional seating available along the raw bar for patrons to watch the restaurant's oyster and sushi preparations. Three private dining rooms are available for small gatherings of 12 guests to larger social celebrations that seat up to 100. Additionally, the restaurant boasts a spacious outdoor patio for al fresco dining among The Post Oak's lush oak trees and water fountains.
